

A JOINT STRUGGLE

Anti-Apartheid and Nonviolence
in Palestine/Israel

Film Screening:

Bil'in Habibti

Award winning film chronicling the nonviolent struggle of Bil'in village

And presentation by:

Mansour Mansour and Shai Carmeli Pollack

March 6, 2008

5:30 - 7:30 PM

Busboys and Poets Restaurant

2021 14th Street NW, Washington DC

$5 - $25 suggested donation

(Proceeds benefit legal aid for Palestinian and Israeli nonviolent activists)

Sponsored by Interfaith Peace-Builders, Nonviolence International and the American University Council on Middle East Studies

Mansour Mansour is a Palestinian from Biddo, a member of Northwest Jerusalem Popular Committee, the Biddo Popular Committee and Director of Biddo Community Development. He conducts weekly workshops with youth and adults promoting nonviolence as a means to resist occupation. He is also a coordinator and non-violent trainer with the International Solidarity Movement (ISM).

Shai Carmeli Pollack is an Israeli director, screenwriter, and cinematographer. His film, Bil'in Habibti won the Wolgin Award for Full-length Documentary Film at the Jerusalem International Film Festival in 2006 and honorable Mention at Rotterdam Film Festival in 2007. He made the film as an Israeli activist working in solidarity with Palestinians struggling against the occupation.

For more information see www.stopapartheid.org

Visit Palestine/Israel
and Support Nonviolence:

WWW.IFPBDEL.ORG

WWW.NONVIOLENCEINTERNATIONAL.NET

